DECLARATION OF CHRISTINE M. MACKINTOSH IN OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT GUILLAUME HANNEZO'S MOTION TO DISMISS

CHRISTINE M. MACKINTOSH hereby declares under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the following is true and correct:

1. I am an associate at Grant & Eisenhofer P.A. ("G&E"), attorneys for certain of the Individual Plaintiffs in this matter ("Individual Plaintiffs" or "Plaintiffs"). I make this declaration in opposition to Defendant Guillaume Hannezo's ("Hannezo") motion to dismiss complaints of the Individual Plaintiffs.

2. In October 2007, Plaintiffs provided Hannezo's counsel with copies of complaints they had filed to that date. In an effort to conserve judicial resources and eliminate the need for costly translations of complaints, Plaintiffs asked Hannezo's counsel to accept service of the complaints, see Exhibit A, and counsel for certain Plaintiffs mailed waivers of service for the complaints they had filed. Hannezo's counsel refused to accept service, see Exhibit B, and the waivers were not returned.

3. Counsel for Plaintiffs retained private investigators to locate Hannezo, whom they understood to be living in France. See Exhibit C. Through those efforts, counsel located Hannezo's business address in Paris.

4. On January 7, 2008, the Court issued a scheduling order (the "Scheduling Order"). In the Scheduling Order, the Court indicated that Plaintiffs could come back to the Court for an order for alternative service should they be unable to effect Hague Service on Hannezo by June 1, 2008. See Exhibit D.

5. Counsel for Plaintiffs promptly solicited and obtained competitive bids for the enormous task of translating each of their collective thirty one complaints and related documents into French as required under the Hague Convention, and serving those complaints in France, and were able to secure a favorable bid (see Exhibit E). Plaintiffs' translation and service vendor estimated that it would take between four and six months to translate and serve the complaints and related documents, which collectively amount to thousands of pages. The cost will be in excess of $80,000.

6. Recognizing that Hannezo would not formally be served for some time, certain Plaintiffs served copies of their complaints on Hannezo's counsel on February 12, 2008. See Exhibit F. Hannezo's counsel replied that he did not consider this good service. See Exhibit G.

7. Plaintiffs, nonetheless, apprised Hannezo's counsel of all deposition and other discovery dates and invited him to participate. These offers were refused for all cases other than with respect to the Capitalia matter. Nevertheless, ever since discovery commenced pursuant to the Court's Scheduling Order, Hannezo's counsel has received copies of all of Plaintiffs' written discovery requests and responses and Plaintiffs' document productions, and his counsel has been present at depositions of Plaintiffs' designated experts and non-party witnesses. Counsel for Hannezo participated in virtually all of the depositions conducted by counsel for the Individual Plaintiffs, including the depositions of Hubert Dupont L'hotelain, held on May 20, 2008; Laurence Daniel, held on May 21, 2008; Dominique Gibert, held on May 23, 2008; Eileen McLaughlin, held on May 29, 2008; Jean Charles Brisard, held on June 11, 2008; Ann Clarke-Wolff, held on July 1, 2008; and Phillippe Guez, held on July 9, 2008. Hannezo's counsel also attended the deposition of the Individual Plaintiffs' damages expert, Frank Torchio, held on June 11-12, 2008.

8. On April 10, 2008, counsel for Plaintiff Frankfurt-Trust Investment-Gesellschaft MBH ("Frankfurt") asked Hannezo's counsel to accept service of Frankfurt's amended complaint on behalf of Hannezo. See Exhibit H. Hannezo's counsel refused the request. See Exhibit I.

9. By May 19, 2008, the first of Plaintiffs' complaints (after Capitalia's) and related documents had been translated and sent to France for service. Over the following weeks, the Bailiff attempted on no less than seven separate occasions to serve Hannezo at his place of business. See Exhibit J. Hannezo finally made an appointment with the Bailiff to accept service of the complaints on June 26, 2008. Id.

10. On June 26, 2008, the bailiff of SCP Perolle Soubie-Ninet (the "Bailiff") met with Hannezo, who accepted service of 20 complaints filed on behalf of certain of the Individual Plaintiffs that had been translated into French. Hannezo at this time refused to agree to set another date for service of additional translated complaints, and relegated the Bailiff to contacting Hannezo's assistant to find a date and time convenient to Hannezo to next meet, which was not until July 11, 2008. Attached hereto as Exhibit K is an email dated July 1, 2008 from Karina Shreefer (Legal Language Services) to Christine Mackintosh regarding (1) the service of certain complaints on Hannezo by the bailiff, and (2) the July 11, 2008 appointment to serve Hannezo translated complaints.

11. Hannezo was served with seven additional complaints on July 11, 2008. Attached hereto as Exhibit L is a chart prepared by Legal Language Services documenting the status of translation and service to date.

12. The role of a bailiff in France is more akin to that of an attorney than that of a bailiff of American courts. French bailiffs have broad legal training and, in addition to serving process and other state functions, they enforce judgments and are responsible for a specific geographic region in France. Procedurally when service of process is made through a French bailiff, the bailiff usually sends out his sworn clerk or notary to serve the documents, which is permitted under French law. In the instant matter, however, the two bailiffs themselves (who are the partners of the firm engaged to serve Hannezo) went to serve Hannezo. That, we are informed, is an unprecedented event.

13. As of the date of this filing, four of the complaints remain in the process of being translated and served. See Exhibit L hereto.

14. On November 14, 2007, the plaintiffs in Capitalia Asset Management SGR, S.p.A. et al. v. Vivendi et al., 07 Civ. 5742, effected service of their complaint on Hannezo pursuant to the Hague Convention. See Exhibit M. As the Capitalia complaint had been filed on June 15, 2007, service of the Capitalia complaint was made more than 120 days after filing, but Hannezo never objected to the timeliness of such service. In fact, Hannezo's counsel actively participated in all depositions and other discovery matters to the extent they related to Capitalia.

Dear Mr. Perschetz:

As you know, we represent the plaintiffs in the above-captioned actions (the "Individual Actions") against Vivendi, S.A. ("Vivendi"), Jean-Marie Messier ("Mr. Messier"), and Guillaume Hannezo ("Mr. Hannezo"). We understand that you represent Mr. Hannezo in the Class Action.

We have served Vivendi and Mr. Messier with the complaints filed in the Individual Actions. We have requested that you accept service on behalf of Mr. Hannezo—who we understand to be located in France—in the Individual Actions. During our telephone conversation yesterday, you indicated that you were unwilling to do so. Accordingly, we have set about the process of serving Mr. Hannezo in France through the Hague Convention. The costs we will incur in connection with such service of the Individual Actions—including effecting service and obtaining certified translations of each of the lengthy complaints and related documents filed in the Individual Actions—are in excess of $20,000. In light of these extensive costs, we respectfully request that you reconsider your position on acceptance of service.

October 10, 2007

Please advise whether we can reach a mutually agreeable resolution to this wasteful use of resources.

Very truly yours,

Dear Ms. Mackintosh:

This is in response to your letter of October 10.

In your October 10 letter, you raise the subject of the costs that would be associated with an attempt by Plaintiffs to serve my client Guillaume Hannezo with a summons and complaint through the use of Hague Convention procedures. I write to express my observation that (a) to my knowledge, Mr. Hannezo has never received notice of any of the above actions in the manner provided in Rule 4(d)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; and (b) any costs associated with serving Mr. Hannezo, a foreign citizen and resident, abroad through the use of Hague convention procedures or otherwise will be borne solely by Plaintiffs. See Rule 4(d)(2) (providing for imposition by court of costs incurred in effecting service only where the defendant is "located within the United States" and fails to comply with a request for waiver following prescribed notice); Steinberg v. Quintet Publ'g Ltd., 1999 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 9729 (S.D.N.Y. June 28, 1999); Hoffman-La Roche, Inc. v. Invamed, Inc., 183 F.R.D. 157 (D.N.J. 1998).

Christine Mackintosh, Esq.

Very truly yours,

Subject: Vivendi locates

Dear Christine:

Here is what I believe to be the probable addresses for your two subjects:

Jean-Marie Messier, U.S. business address:
Messier Partners LLC
1 Rockefeller Plaza
New York NY 10020.

Tel. 212-332-6050

Messier New York residence:
228 East 67th St., Apt. A
New York, NY 10021

Tel. 212-879-4270.

This appears not to be a doorman building. According to databases, it is just two apartments. The address is also shared by a French restaurant, and someone who answered the phone there said there were apartments upstairs. Because of this, and because the databases indicate Messier left this address last year, I would start by trying to serve him at the business address.

Hannezo French business address:

Rothschild & Cie.
23 bis Avenue de Messine
75008 Paris

Tel (direct line): 011-33-1-4074-8803

Hannezo left his most recent residential address in New York around the time he left Vivendi, according to databases. I called the doorman at this building on Central Park West in New York. The doorman told me nobody by the name of Hannezo lives in the building now.

6/23/2008

Please let us know if you need more on this.

SCHEDULING ORDER

A conference having been held in these cases on October 30, 2007; the parties having submitted proposals regarding scheduling in the above-captioned actions (the "Individual Actions"); and the Court having considered the submissions of the parties, it is hereby ordered:

1. This Order shall apply to the Individual Actions and to any related individual actions hereafter filed, which individual actions shall thereafter automatically be deemed to be "Individual Actions" subject to this Order, unless relief from this Order is granted by the Court.

2. The provisions of the Confidentiality Order in the Class Action shall apply to the Individual Actions. Counsel for the plaintiffs in each of the Individual Actions (the "Individual Plaintiffs") shall be entitled to full and equal access to all discovery in the Class Action on the same terms as counsel for the Lead Plaintiffs in the Class Action, and in accordance with the terms set forth in said Confidentiality Order.

3. The Individual Actions are consolidated with each other and with the Securities Class Action for all purposes. The Court finds that considerations of convenience and judicial economy warrant consolidation. The Individual Plaintiffs will not be unduly prejudiced as they will not be deprived of the right to take necessary supplemental discovery, retain experts, or pursue independent strategies for trial or settlement. Their claim of possible prejudice resulting from the application of the provisions of the Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act is at this point premature and would not justify the separate trial of the claims of over fifty Individual Plaintiffs as well as those of the class, all of which raise common questions of law and fact.

4. Upon the consent of the parties, there shall be no stay of discovery in the event that defendants move to dismiss the Individual Actions. The Individual Parties shall appoint a coordinating committee of four lawyers to coordinate all discovery by and between the Individual Plaintiffs and defendants and to coordinate all submissions to the Court. Any member of such committee (but only one member of the committee) may act as spokesperson for the committee on any particular discovery matter or with regard to any motions before the Court. Any written communication by a defendant to a member of the committee shall be copied to the remaining three members of the committee. The parties may apply to Judge Pitman if they believe they are in need of further assistance in coordinating pre-trial discovery.

5. By January 14, 2008, defendants in the Class Action shall provide to counsel for the Individual Plaintiffs one copy of: (I) all of the documents and all of the other discovery that defendants have produced in the Class Action; (2) all of the depositions and all of the deposition exhibits in the Class Action; (3) all of the documents and all of the other discovery that defendants in the Class Action have received from non-parties including, but not limited to, all documents and all other materials that non-parties have produced to defendants in response to subpoenas duces tecum; (4) all discovery requests, formal responses and correspondence explaining any limitations on what was produced in response to requests; and (5) all pleadings and court papers filed in the class action. To the extent presently available, all such discovery materials should be produced to counsel for the Individual Plaintiffs in the form of CDs, hard drives, or other appropriate computer-searchable media.

6. By January 14, 2008, Lead Plaintiffs in the Class Action shall provide to counsel for the Individual Plaintiffs one copy of: (1) all of the documents and all of the other discovery that plaintiffs have produced in the Class Action; and (2) all of the documents and all of the other discovery that plaintiffs in the Class Action have received from non-parties including, but not limited to, all documents and all other materials that non-parties have produced to plaintiffs in response to subpoenas duces tecum. To the extent presently available, all such discovery materials should be produced to counsel for the Individual Plaintiffs in the form of CDs, hard drives, or other appropriate computer-searchable media.

7. By March 18, 2008 the Individual Plaintiffs shall serve a single consolidated set of notices of deposition. With respect to any witnesses who have already been deposed ("follow-up depositions"), counsel for the Individual Plaintiffs shall identify with reasonable specificity in an attachment to the notice of deposition the topics they believe have not been fully and fairly covered in the prior deposition. If, after conferring with Individual Plaintiffs' counsel, defendants object to the scope of any follow-up deposition, they may apply to Judge Pitman by March 24, 2008 for an order limiting such deposition. Judge Pitman will rule on any such objections during the week of March 31, 2008. All fact depositions noticed by the Individual Plaintiffs shall be completed by June 2, 2008.

8. The Individual Plaintiffs may serve consolidated non-duplicative requests for admission, interrogatories consistent with Local Rule 33.3, and document requests that seek documents not already produced by defendants. Any such request shall be served by March 18, 2008. If, after conferring with the Individual Plaintiffs' counsel, defendants object to any such discovery request, they may serve responses and objections to those requests by March 24, 2008 and, if necessary, apply to Judge Pitman on that same date for a protective order. Judge Pitman will rule on that motion during the week of March 31, 2008.

9. By January 14, 2008 defendants shall serve upon Individual Plaintiffs any (a) document requests, (b) interrogatories regarding standing and (c) other interrogatories contemplated by Local Rule 33.3. Individual Plaintiffs shall respond by February 14, 2008.

10. By February 20, 2008, defendants shall serve any deposition notices upon Individual Plaintiffs. All depositions of Individual Plaintiffs shall be completed by April 15, 2008. No deposition of Individual Plaintiffs shall be taken before February 20, 2008.

11. Defendants' expert disclosures shall be made, as previously scheduled, on March 7, 2008. The Court understands that Class Plaintiffs' and Liberty Media's expert disclosures were made by December 21, 2007.

12. Depositions of Class Plaintiffs' and Liberty Media's experts shall be completed between March 10 and March 28, 2008 and depositions of defendants' experts shall be completed between March 31 and April 21, 2008.

13. By May 15, 2008 Individual Plaintiffs shall file expert disclosures, and defendants shall file any supplemental expert disclosures relating only to claims made by the Individual Plaintiffs by June 6, 2008. Depositions of these experts shall be completed by July 3, 2008.

14. Defendants' motions to dismiss the Individual Plaintiffs' actions and summary judgment motions, if any, shall be filed on June 15, 2008. Opposition papers shall be filed on July 15, 2008. Reply papers shall be filed on July 25, 2008.

16. Trial will begin on October 14, 2008.

17. Absent agreement among the parties or further application to the Court, Individual Actions filed after February 28, 2008 shall be stayed pending trial of the consolidated actions.

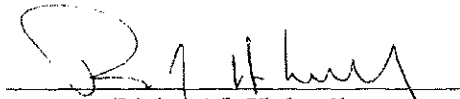

18. A status conference will be held on June 27, 2008 at 2:00 p.m. Prior to the conference the parties shall submit a joint proposal for the preparation of a final pre-trial order and related filings (motions in limine, deposition designations, proposed jury charges, etc.)

19. Defendant Hannezo is a party to certain of the consolidated actions and is bound by all discovery conducted herein. If the Individual Plaintiffs are unable to effect service pursuant to The Hague Convention by June 1, 2008 they may apply to the Court for permission to make alternate service.

SO ORDERED.

Re: Vivendi litigation

Dear Christine:

It was a pleasure speaking with you about your project. Legal Language Services (LLS) can provide translation from English into French and legal certification of 28 complaints and related documents filed in the above-referenced litigation, as well as service of process of 28 Hague Service Requests upon one defendant in France, on the following terms:

Translation, legal certification, and service of process $83,550

Currently, turnaround time for translation and service of process is estimated to be between four and six months.

In order for LLS to initiate work, we require your signature below acknowledging that your firm has authorized the project and is responsible for payment. The bid letter may be returned to LLS at our toll-free fax number, (888) 754-8454. Please note that delays in returning this bid letter may jeopardize deadlines for your project. Payment must also be received by LLS prior to initiating work. For your convenience, LLS accepts most major credit cards, checks and wire transfers.

Please note if job is subsequently cancelled or put on hold, GRANT & EISENHOFER P.A. will be responsible for any costs that have been incurred by LLS.

All prices quoted herein are valid for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of this letter.

I hope you will not hesitate to contact me at (800) 755-5775 if you have questions concerning this price quote or with regard to any aspect of the work we will be performing. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

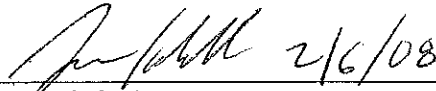

Agreed and accepted by:

JUNE 23, 2008. CHRONOLOGY OF ATTEMPTS TO SERVE GUILLAUME HANNEZO BY FRENCH BAILIFF OF SCP PEROLLE SOUBIE-NINET IN PARIS, FRANCE

1. The documents were delivered to the SCP Perolle Soubie-Ninet on May 19, 2008.
2. LLS telephoned the bailiff's office on Wednesday, May 28, 2008. Service attempts are to begin tomorrow (attempts would have begun sooner, but the person in charge of international service requests, Mrs. Bertin, was on vacation).
3. On Thursday, May 29, 2008, the bailiff's sworn clerk went to Hannezo's place of employment, Rothschild & Co., where he spoke to Hannezo's personal assistant. She indicated that Hannezo was traveling but would be back in the office next week. Bailiff's office told LLS that they would again attempt personal service on Monday, June 2, 2008.
4. Bailiff's sworn clerk went to Rothschild & Co. at 6 pm on Monday, June 2, 2008. He again spoke with Hannezo's personal assistant, who said that Hannezo was in a meeting and that the clerk should wait at the reception desk for her. The clerk waited until 6:45 pm, then spoke to the receptionist, who said that the personal assistant had left for the day.
5. Sworn clerk returned to Rothschild & Co. on Wednesday, June 4, 2008. He was informed that the personal assistant was not in, and that it would be difficult to see Hannezo without her, so the sworn clerk decided to return the next day.
6. Sworn clerk returned to Rothschild & Co. the morning of Thursday, June 5, 2008. He was informed that neither Hannezo nor the personal assistant were in that day. He left his calling card, and the calling card of Mrs. Bertin at the SCP Perolle Soubie-Ninet, with both business and home phone numbers, asking Hannezo to phone to make an appointment for service.
7. Sworn clerk returned to Rothschild & Co. the morning of Friday, June 6, 2008. The personal assistant was not in, but the receptionist was able to get a message to Hannezo. Hannezo called back from his cell phone, saying that he was out of the country. Hannezo indicated that the bailiff's office could telephone the next week to set up an appointment with his personal assistant for personal service upon himself.
8. On Monday, June 9, 2008, the bailiff's office was able to speak to the personal assistant. She said that Hannezo was still traveling, but would return soon, and that he had agreed to come to get the documents himself at the bailiff's office or would set an appointment for personal service.
9. On Tuesday, June 10, 2008, the bailiff's office spoke to the personal assistant, who said that she would call back on June 11, 2008, after speaking to Hannezo.

10. The personal assistant did not call back, but the bailiff's office was able to reach her on Friday, June 13, 2008. She said that Hannezo would be back in the country next week, and would call the bailiff's office, either to make an appointment to be served or to come pick up the documents himself, in a taxi.

11. On Monday, June 16, 2008, the sworn clerk was able to speak to the personal assistant. She said that Hannezo was in the office, but had meetings all day. She requested that the bailiff's office call Wednesday morning, June 18, 2008, to fix an appointment for service.

12. The sworn clerk was able to reach Hannezo's personal assistant on Wednesday, June 18, 2008. An appointment has been set for the sworn clerk to bring the documents to personally serve Hannezo at his place of business at 11:30 am, June 26, 2008.

Christine,

The French bailiffs have another appointment to serve Hannezo on Friday, July 11 at 11:30 a.m. They intend to call on the 8th to confirm that appointment.

We'll do our best to have all the documents to France before that date. FYI, we still need the missing Frankfurt Trust documents mentioned in yesterday's e-mail.

I've also attached the latest chart showing an additional five complaints have been sent to France.

As always, please let me know if you need anything further.

Thanks,

Karina

A LA DEMANDE DE Diane K.Myers

SIGNIFIE A Monsieur HANNEZO Guillaume
84 avenue du Roule
92200 NEUILLY SUR SEINE

Cet acte a été remis par Clerc assermenté dans les conditions ci-dessous indiquées, et suivant les déclarations qui lui ont été faites.

- Au domicile du destinataire dont la certitude est caractérisée par les éléments suivants :

■ La signification à la personne même du destinataire de l'acte s'avérant impossible pour les raisons suivantes :

J'ai rencontré : Mme HANNEZO Marie Laure son épouse
ainsi déclaré qui a accepté de recevoir la copie.

J'ai laissé copie de l'acte sous enveloppe fermée, ne comportant d'autres indications que d'un côté le nom et l'adresse du destinataire de l'acte, et de l'autre côté le cachet de mon Etude apposé sur la fermeture du pli.

Un avis de passage daté de ce jour, mentionnant la nature de l'acte, le nom du requérant et le nom de la personne ayant reçu la copie a été laissé au domicile du signifié.

La lettre prévue par l'article 658 du Nouveau Code de Procédure Civile contenant copie de l'acte de signification a été adressée le jour même ou au plus tard le premier jour ouvrable.
